Today's

Tomorrow's

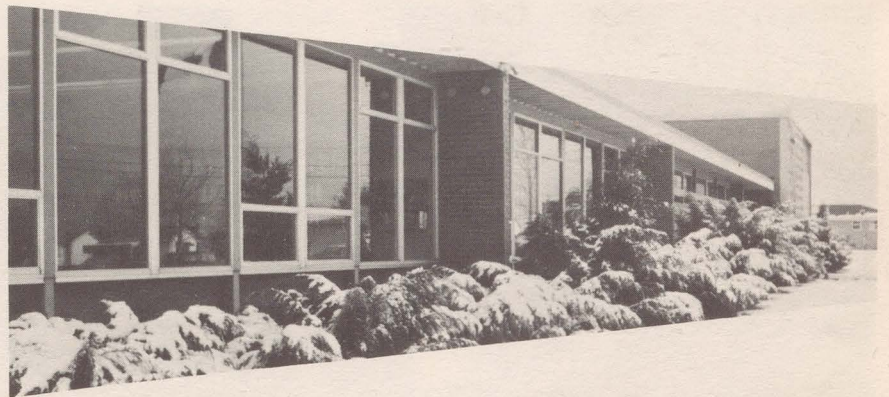

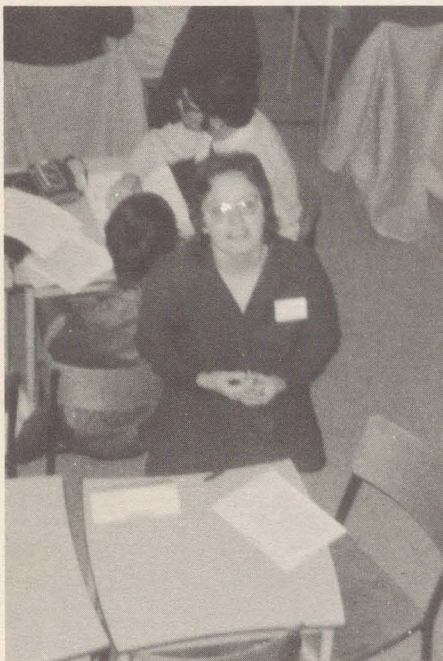

Yesterday's

I sit here in the lonely hollows
 Of the chambers of needed learning.
 And here I see a quiet maze,
 Of walls of long, blue boxes.
 I know of many things that were,
 But who shall teach the comings of the future.
 Is it not what is important
 To learn of what shall come
 Than dread of past misfortunes
 And bleed the long dead blood?
 For shall I know the times of wonder
 The love perhaps I'll miss.
 And yet I feel that it is fine
 To watch and wait and behold with wanting eyes,
 To see the future and gaze with wonder
 Of unexpected things, be sweet or sad or few.

Memoriam

HE WAS A FRIEND

He made his friends by being one,
And on his friendship men relied;
In every deed that need be done
He made the Golden Rule his guide.
His friendly presence brought a cheer
That made the day seem wondrous fair;
His daily living so sincere
Made others love him everywhere;
He was a friend.

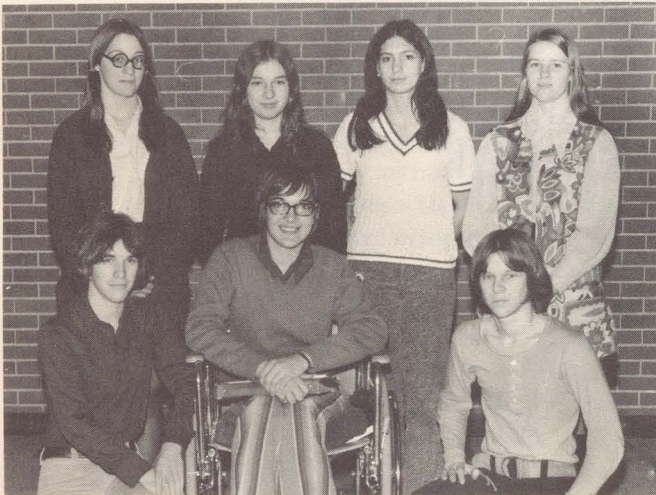

No task too great for him to do,
And in the doing was a smile
That aided as he carried through
The deeds that were so well worthwhile.
The brightness of his day is gone;
We see the setting of the sun;
If only we could carry on
And live a life like he has done!
He was a friend.

Just yonder on the star-kissed shore
He carries on in nobler way;
Though we can see his face no more,
Thanks for his friendship for a day.
If on his tomb I could indite
The epitaph I have in mind,
One phrase is all that I could write,
The truest words that I could find:
He was a friend.

WAR

My heart cries out,
For the man who has to kill.
When he has no choice,
No matter what his will.

No-one ever wants to murder,
The thought haunts on forever.
It lingers in his mind,
Like one big nightmare.

He wakes up in the down,
Trembling with fright.
He's wet with fever,
Remembering the nights!

Wondering if it ever end,
If he could last another day.
With the preposterous persecutions,
Wondering how long he would stay.

He yearns for his family,
His wife and his son.
He knew nothing would be accomplished
Not anything with a gun.

Words are the answer, he said
With brotherly love, in our hearts
If only everyone could realize
It's time we made the start.

Who Dances in the Child

Time has just begun
To remove all that has corrupted
Before the past.
Not one obstacle will encounter a challenge
For time is absent.
Existing, but never dying, never born.
Frightening when one says "Time will tell"
There is no time.
It just is.

Enter in now little one
Your doom is tomorrow, mine today.
Farewell. Don't ask why or how.
Do not reason the order.
Listen... Nothing... Look... Sightless...
Time is only the beginning
Of what has been reasoned
By no-one to anyone, who lives or exists!
It is not your turn
Turn back, the hour is past
The darkness is gone.
All has one... or...

And so the flight of nothing vanishes
And returns without leaving a trace
Of why it left?
Or if it left? Did it leave?
I hope not.
For the sake of knowing
I don't know, I should find out.
Before now leads me to them

The answer is not what you seek
But the reason behind the past.
Only the fool, who dances in the child
Controls the matter before us
Our eyes can not search it's mind
For the wheel of bizzare fantasy is its master

The Poets Realm

Being Two in One

I have reached out and tried to grasp,
To feel something that hasn't been touched,
To see what hasn't been seen.
To be him, that someone could never be.
But yet I want to feel, touch, and see,
And be him and be me.

Jane Melanson

What do you write
When you have nothing to say.
Do you scribble on the page
"It's a very nice day."

Maybe it is
Maybe it's not
But you really shouldn't do it
Because that's what was taught.

So I drew a picture
That I thought could sing
The white was forgotten
The season was spring.

The night is black
The morning is yellow
But if she takes me by her side
And says "my fine young fellow
The daytime is blue
And the morning is green
This is reality
Not just a dream."

I've now lost my colours
Of yellow and black
Who cares about them
I can always get them back.

Without these colours
I still got along
But a morning that was green
Seemed all wrong.

But soon they were forgotten
The picture was put away
I draw white-collared people
In a warm blue day.

Wayne Lessard

My heart is ready, God
----I mean to sing and play.
Awake, my muse,
Awake, lyre and harp,
I mean to wake the Dawn!

As the World Turns for a Hitchhiker

Monday's coming round the bend
Our time is running slow
We're leaving with a hand to lend
We had better pick up and go

Tuesday sees long roads ahead
With hundreds of miles to cover
Taking sleeping bags, food and bread
We must set out and discover

Wednesday, the sun is shining bright
This day is warm and long
So when we stop to face the night
Nothing can go wrong

Thursday's here we'll pack and leave
To make it there in time
With little food, and mouths to feed
We can't even spare a dime

Friday brings a whole new day
We're working for our bread
We like it here and want to stay
But we must set out ahead

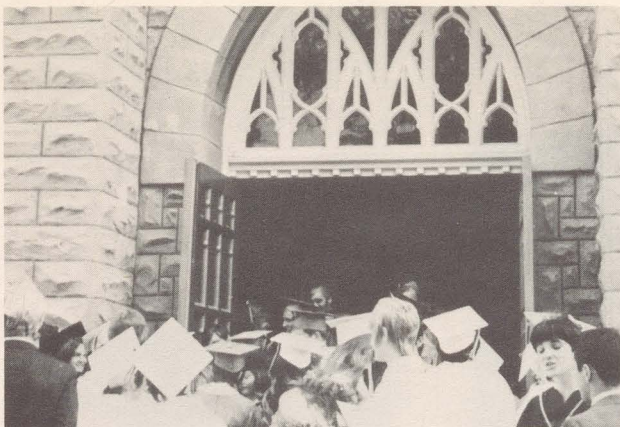

Saturday's going to come on like a storm
With many new discoveries and rides
Tomorrow's day will be like a new babe born
Or the turning of the tides

Sunday will be our day of rest
The morning bright and rosey
We wonder if we've done what's best
Or should we be home where it's cozy

Mary Hayes

My feet are weary
As I walk through life.
My friend and foe
Are obstacles laid rhythmically
In the future.
Perhaps the Lord has given me the love
To understand their ways
And know the path of their obstacles
I learn to love one more
I learn to know more failure.
But my love will help me walk;
Sometimes running
And as I pass one more mine
Without the danger of destroying myself
I give myself the chance to move on.

A DYING MAN

And The Concentration Held You Near
 Not To The Walls Of Death
 Not To The Walls Of Freedom
 Not To The Walls Of Joy
 Not To The Walls Of Sorrow
 But To The Walls Of Animation
 Dimensified Slowly Through The Thoughts
 Of Time

Grow, Grow, Grow And Cease Not To Let Thy Tears Shame Thyself But To Thank Those Few That Have Cared.
 Sleep Now. 'Tis Time For All Dreary
 Eyes To Close Tightly Into Dream. For Tomorrow Awaits A New Life. Just
 The Stretch Of An Arm And The Thought
 Of A Mind Suspended There Only To See
 What Has Been Done And What Will Become If Time Does Not Halt.

Rally October '70

Students,

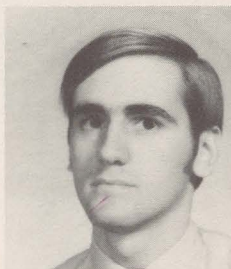

As usual, it has been a great year! The highlight of activities took place in October when 26,000 students attended a Rally for Catholic Education in Toronto. St. Anne's has organized many demonstrations and activities on a local level which also proved to be successful. We believe the grants are on the way up to grade 13.

United we stood,
Greg Marcotte

Congress '71

The primary aim of the provincial wide congress held at London, Ontario, other than the election of a new board and executive, was the adoption of an action plan to pressure the Conservative Government and to favour candidates of opposing parties who uphold the issue. With your co-operation, I, as your new board member will strive to co-ordinate activities which will once again put St. Anne's under the spotlight.

Sincerely,
Jerry Marcotte
